2. Conflicts of Interest and Gifts

2.1 Employees must declare any actual or potential conflict of interest, including outside employment or a financial interest in a supplier or client, within fifteen (15) days of it arising, using Form COC-02 (Conflict of Interest Declaration).

2.2 Outside employment requires prior written approval from the Head of HR.

2.3 Employees may accept gifts or hospitality worth up to PKR 5,000 from clients or suppliers. Gifts above PKR 5,000 must be declared on Form COC-02 within seven (7) days. Cash or cash-equivalent gifts (such as gift cards) must never be accepted, whatever the value.

3.1 Employees must not disclose confidential Company or client information to anyone outside the Company, during or after employment.

3.2 Confidentiality obligations continue for three (3) years after employment ends.

4.2 Employees must not be under the influence of alcohol or drugs while at work.

5. Misconduct

5.1 Minor misconduct includes: arriving late more than three (3) times in a calendar month, unauthorised absence of one day, misuse of Company equipment, and failing to follow reasonable instructions from a Line Manager.

5.2 Gross misconduct includes: theft or fraud; falsifying expense claims, timesheets or other records; sharing login credentials or deliberately bypassing security controls (see Section 3 of the IT and Information Security Policy, KA-POL-04); unauthorised disclosure of client data; violence or threats of violence; harassment; and being under the influence of alcohol or drugs at work.

6. Disciplinary Procedure

6.2 Stage 2, written warning: valid for twelve (12) months.

6.3 Stage 3, final written warning: valid for twelve (12) months.

6.4 Stage 4, dismissal: applies if further misconduct occurs while a final written warning is valid.

6.5 For gross misconduct, the Company may proceed directly to dismissal after an inquiry, without earlier warnings.

6.6 Before any written warning or dismissal, the employee receives a show-cause notice and has five (5) working days to respond in writing. The employee may be accompanied by a colleague at any disciplinary hearing.

6.7 During an inquiry into gross misconduct, the employee may be suspended on full pay for up to thirty (30) days.

7. Appeals

7.1 An employee may appeal a disciplinary decision within ten (10) working days of receiving it. Appeals are made to the Head of HR; if the Head of HR was involved in the original decision, the appeal is made to the CEO.
